

Fax 067 33401 Tel 067 31214 or Email classifieds@nenaghguardian.ie
Advertise online: www.nenaghguardian.ie

Keava O'Sullivan, Ballywilliam, Arabella Scanlan, Charlie Great Dane, Rose Scanlan and Pony Simbo Anne Murphy of Equistyle Nenagh

All set for East Clare Show

THE 24th annual South East Clare Show is scheduled for Sunday, July 27th at Bridgetown Show grounds Co. Clare, only 15 minutes drive from Nenagh. The event promises to be a guaranteed enjoyable day out for families and friends.

A nice evening on Friday last encouraged a healthy turnout of the local Bridgetown community and Show sponsors to participate in the launch of the event. It took place on the Community Green with an array of food and beverages available, children's entertainment and a visit from Joanne O'Gorman, Clare Rose 2014, who enjoyed conversation with Show committee and local people.

South East Clare Show has chosen Milford Care Centre as charity of choice for the Show date, Sunday, July 27th. Cathy Sheehan, Head of Finance was present to represent Milford Care Centre, The Show Committee look forward to presenting a donation post Show date into this community which touches the hearts of so many people.

Richard Hackett, Clonlara brought along his prize winning 9 month old Charolais CF52 Bull, to give those in attendance an idea of what to expect in the 28 Cattle Classes scheduled for the show date.

The 24th Annual South East Clare Show at Bridgetown Show grounds introduces some additional activity for families, children and patrons both in the leisure and competitive capacity.

With a total prize fund of €20,000 and more than 2,500 equestrian, cattle and Horticultural entries expected, the 2014 Show will draw thousands of people to watch feature classes such as Cavan Equestrian Centre Elite Sales Qualifier for young horses, Champion of Champions in the Limousin Pedigree Cattle Section and Odium's All-Ireland Home Baking Qualifier.

The Show will have something for everyone, including a comprehensive programme of children's entertainment including bouncy castles, mobile pet farm, archery, ceramic making and many dog showing classes.

A selection of "Farmers Market" style stands await visitors to the show and this year the team at Irish BBQ Association join on the day to provide an atmospheric and dining experience.

Be in with a chance to win Best Dressed Lady, Bonnie Baby or little Miss Competition

A selection of Vintage cars & tractors will be on display. East Clare Harriers Hunt will be parading the hounds at 3pm in the main jumping arena; do not miss the beautiful spectacle and selection of two and four wheel traditional driving carriages and horses.

A great selection of home produce and horticulture items including a children section will also be on view.

National & International riders will participate in many of the scheduled show jumping events - starting at 9.30am

General admission for a family €20.00. Children go free up to 12 years, while student or OAP cost €5.00 or individual adult costs €10.00